Constitution of Conference

This Annual Conference being primarily for the consideration of questions of administration pertaining to Foreign Missions, its membership is confined to executive officers and members of Foreign Mission Boards and Societies, having separate church constituencies in the United States and Canada, the executive officers of said Boards and Societies, together with two members from each, duly elected for the purpose, being alone entitled to vote. Other members of Foreign Mission Boards represented in the Conference, and officers and members of the executive committees of interdenominational agencies directly interested in Foreign Missionary work may be elected by the Conference as corresponding members.

In addition the Conference cordially welcomes any foreign missionaries or other interested friends who may be present at its sessions.

Opening addresses and reports are limited to twenty minutes.

In the Discussion each speaker is allowed five minutes.
